AUDITORS' REPORT

To: the Shareholders of Mosquito Consolidated Gold Mines Limited

We have audited the consolidated balance sheet of Mosquito Consolidated Gold Mines Limited as at June 30, 2010 and the consolidated statements of operations and deficit, comprehensive loss and accumulated other comprehensive income, and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

1. NATURE OF AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

Mosquito Consolidated Gold Mines Limited (the "Company") was incorporated under the laws of British Columbia and is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX-V"). The Company's principal business activities include acquiring and developing mineral properties and operating drilling rigs. At June 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company's principal mineral property interests are located in Canada, and United States of America. The Company's drilling operation is located in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the basis of Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") applicable to a going concern. As at June 30, 2010, the Company had working capital of $3,425,227 and has incurred losses since inception of $27,911,615. The appropriateness of using the going concern basis is dependent upon, among other things, future profitable operations, and the ability of the Company to raise additional capital to fund ongoing exploration expenditures and operating losses and ultimately on generating profitable operations. Specifically, the recovery of the Company's investment in resource properties and related deferred expenditures is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to develop the properties and establish future profitable production from the properties, or from the proceeds of their disposition. The Company has not generated any revenues to date from its mineral properties and is considered to be in the exploration stage.

Management is also aware that significant material uncertainties exist, related to current economic conditions that could cast doubt upon the Company's ability to continue to finance its exploration activities. Management is not able to assess the likelihood of timing of improvements in the equity markets for raising capital for future acquisitions or expenditures. These uncertainties represent a liquidity risk and may impact the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in the future. Management plans on raising additional funding with equity financing and/or advances from related parties to meet its exploration programs.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue in normal operations.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation

These consolidated financial statements are expressed in Canadian dollars. They include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Kirkness Diamond Drilling, Inc. (from the date of acquisition on September 6, 2007), 1156207 Ontario Ltd., Mosquito Mining Corp., and Mosquito Operation Inc. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated upon consolidation.

Use of estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Areas requiring significant management estimates relate to the determination of impairment of mineral properties, expected tax rates for future income taxes, fair value of stock-based payments, useful lives for amortization of long-lived assets, and the fair values assigned to marketable securities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Foreign currency translation

These financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars. The Company considers its United States operation as integrated foreign operations and uses the temporal method to translate all foreign currency transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities are translated to their Canadian dollar equivalents using foreign exchange rates which prevailed at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary items are translated at historical exchange rates, except for items carried at market value, which are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date. Revenue and expenses are translated at average rates of exchange during the year. Exchange gains or losses arising on foreign currency translation are included in the determination of operating results.

Marketable securities

Marketable securities are classified as available for sale in accordance with the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") Handbook section 3855, "Financial instruments" which are recorded at fair value with unrealized gains and losses recorded in comprehensive income (loss).

Investments

Investments in which the Company exerts significant influence are accounted for using the equity method whereby the original cost of the investment is adjusted for the Company's share of earnings, losses and dividends. Investments in which the Company does not exert significant influence are accounted for using the cost method. Under the cost method of accounting, the investment is initially recorded at cost and earnings from such investments are recognized only to the extent they are received or receivable.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost. Plant and equipment are amortized at the following annual rates:

Computer equipment	30%	declining balance method
Field equipment	20%	declining balance method
Vehicles	30%	declining balance method
Building	39 years	straight line
Office equipment and furniture	30%	declining balance method
Drill rigs, mining equipment and related vehicles	5 years or 20%	straight line declining balance method

One half of the normal rate is recorded in the year of acquisition.

Mineral properties

All costs related to mineral property acquisition, exploration and development are capitalized by project. These costs will be amortized against revenue from future production using the units of production basis or written off if the interest is deemed impaired, abandoned or sold or the carrying value is determined to be impaired. Write-downs due to impairment in value are charged to operations.

The amounts shown for mineral interests represent costs incurred to date, less recoveries, and do not necessarily reflect present or future values. The recoverability of amounts shown for mineral interests is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, confirmation of the Company's interest in the underlying mineral claims, the ability of the Company to obtain financing to complete development of the projects as well as future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition thereof.

Management evaluates the carrying value of the Company's mineral properties on a reporting period basis or as events or circumstances warrant, and makes a determination based on exploration activity and results, estimated future cash flows and availability of funding as to whether costs remain capitalized, or written off as impairment charges. Mineral properties, where future cash flows are not reasonably determinable, are evaluated for impairment based on changes in events or circumstances and management's intentions and determination of the extent to which future exploration programs are warranted and likely to be funded.

Ownership in mineral interests involves certain inherent risks due to the difficulties of determining and obtaining clear title to the claims as well as the potential for problems arising from the frequently ambiguous conveyancing history characteristic of many mineral interests.

Property option agreements

From time to time, the Company may acquire or dispose of properties pursuant to the terms of option agreements. Due to the fact that options are exercisable directly at the discretion of the optionee, amounts payable or receivable are not recorded. Option payments are recorded as resource property costs or recoveries when the payments are made or received. Option payments received in excess of costs incurred are recognized as revenue.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company conducts its impairment test on long-lived assets when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Impairment is recognized when the carrying value amount of an asset to be held and used exceeds the undiscounted future net cash flows expected from its use and disposal. If there is impairment, the impairment amount is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable value.

Environmental costs

Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate. Expenditures that relate to an existing condition caused by past operations, and which do not contribute to current or future revenue generation, are expensed. Liabilities are recorded when environmental assessments and/or remedial efforts are probable, and the cost can be reasonably estimated. Generally, the timing of these accruals coincides with the earlier of completion of feasibility study or the Company's commitments to plan of action based on the then known facts. The Company intends to comply with all environmental authorities.

Asset retirement obligations

An asset retirement obligation is a legal obligation associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets that the Company is required to settle. This would indicate obligations related to future removal of property and equipment, and site restoration costs. The Company recognizes the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation in the year in which it is incurred when a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made. The carrying amount of the related long-lived asset is increased by the same amount as the liability. The Company currently does not have any significant asset retirement obligations.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from drilling contracts is recognized on the basis of actual number of hours spent on each contract plus material costs. Revenue from ancillary services such as equipment rental is recorded when the services are rendered. Revenue is recognized when the service is provided and collection is reasonably assured. The Company invoices its customers on a monthly basis. Contract prepayments (customer deposits) are recorded as deferred revenue and applied towards the contracts.

Stock-based compensation

The Company follows the recommendations of CICA Handbook Section 3870, which establishes standards for the recognition, measurement and disclosure of stock-based compensation and other stock-based payments. Compensation expense for options granted is determined based on estimated fair values of the options at the time of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Goodwill

Acquisition of business entities are accounted for using the purchase method whereby goodwill represents any excess of the purchase price over fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities acquired at the date of acquisition. Management evaluated goodwill on an annual basis for potential impairment in connection with other long-lived assets. Based on its annual evaluation of goodwill, management has determined that the carrying value of goodwill exceeds its fair value. Accordingly, management has concluded that impairment had occurred and the Company recognized an expense of $557,208 for the year ended June 30, 2008.

Income tax

The Company accounts for future income taxes using the asset and liability method, whereby future tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between the carrying values of the asset and liabilities and their respective income tax bases. Future income tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on future income taxes and liabilities of a change in rates is included in operations in the period that includes the substantive enactment date. Where the probability of a realization of a future income tax asset is more likely than not, a valuation allowance is recorded.

Income (loss) per share

The Company uses the treasury stock method to compute the dilutive effect of options, warrants and similar instruments. Under this method the dilutive effect on loss per common share is recognized on the use of the proceeds that could be obtained upon exercise of options, warrants and similar instruments. It assumes that the proceeds would be used to purchase common shares at the average market price during the period.

Basic loss per common share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period and does not include outstanding options and warrants. Dilutive loss per common share is not presented differently from basic loss per share as the conversion of outstanding stock options and warrants into common shares would be anti-dilutive.

Financial instruments

The Company follows the CICA Handbook Section 3855, "Financial Instruments". This section prescribes when a financial instrument is to be recognized on the balance sheet and at what amount. Under Section 3855, financial instruments must be classified into one of five categories: held-for-trading, held-to-maturity, loans and receivables, available-for-sale financial assets, or other financial liabilities. All financial instruments, including derivatives, are measured at the balance sheet date at fair value except for loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments, and other financial liabilities which are measured at amortized cost.

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, marketable securities, accounts receivable, reclamation deposits, accounts payable and due to related parties. Cash, which is measured at face value, representing fair value, is classified as held-for-trading. Accounts receivable and reclamation deposits, which are measured at amortized cost, are classified as loans and receivables. Accounts payable and due to related parties, which are measured at amortized cost, are classified as other financial liabilities. The fair value of these financial instruments approximates their carrying values, unless otherwise noted. Marketable securities are classified as available-for-sale.

Comprehensive income

The Company adopted CICA Section 1530, Comprehensive Income effective July 1, 2007. This section establishes standards for reporting and presenting comprehensive income or loss, which is defined as the change in equity from transactions and other events from sources other than income or loss, which is defined as the change in equity from transactions and other events from sources other than the Company's shareholders. Other comprehensive income or loss refers to items recognized in comprehensive principles such as unrealized gains or losses on available-for-sale investments. Amounts initially recorded to other comprehensive income or loss is reclassified to earnings when the financial instrument is derecognized or impaired.

Accounting changes

The Company implemented the CICA Handbook Section 1506 for changes in accounting policies, accounting treatment and disclosure regarding changes in accounting policies, estimates and corrections of errors. In particular, this section allows for voluntary changes in accounting policies only when they result in the financial statements providing reliable and more relevant information. This section requires changes in accounting policies to be applied retrospectively unless doing so is impracticable.

General standards of financial statement presentation

The CICA accounting standards board amended section 1400 to include requirements for management to assess and disclose an entity's ability to continue as a going concern. This section applies to interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2008. The Company has included disclosures recommended by the Handbook sections in Note 1 to these financial statements.

Capital disclosures

The Company adopted CICA Section 1535 to interim and annual financial statements related to fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2008. The new standard requires disclosure of the Company's objectives, policies, and processes for managing capital; quantitative data about what the Company regards as capital; whether the Company has complied with any capital requirements; and, if the Company has not complied, the consequences of such non-compliance. The Company has included disclosures recommended by the Handbook sections in Note 13 to these financial statements.

Financial instruments – disclosure and presentation

The Company adopted CICA Handbook Section 3862 Financial Instruments – Disclosures and 3863 Financial Instruments – Presentation replaced accounting standard 3861 Financial Instruments – Disclosure and Presentation to interim and annual financial statements related to fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2008. Presentation requirements have not changed. Enhanced disclosure is required to assist users of financial statements in evaluating the significance of financial instruments on the Company's financial position and performance, including qualitative and quantitative information about the Company's exposure to risks arising from financial instruments. The Company has included disclosures recommended by the Handbook sections in Note 15 to these financial statements.

The additional fair value measurement disclosures include classification of financial instrument fair values in a fair value hierarchy comprising three levels reflecting the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements, described as follows:

Level 1: Valuations based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2: Valuations based on directly or indirectly observable inputs in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, other than Level 1 prices such as quoted interest or currency exchange rates; and

Level 3: Valuations based on significant inputs that are not derived from observable market data, such as discounted cash flow methodologies based on internal cash flow forecasts.

These amendments are required to be adopted for the fiscal years ending after September 30, 2009. The Company has adopted these amendments for the year ended June 30, 2010. The adoption of this standard is consistent with recent amendments to financial instrument disclosure standards in IFRS. All of the financial instruments measured at fair value are included in Level 1.

Mining exploration costs

In March 2009, the CICA approved EIC 174, Mining Exploration Costs. The guidance clarified that an enterprise that has initially capitalized exploration costs has an obligation in the current and subsequent accounting periods to test such costs for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that its carrying amount may not be recoverable. The guidance is applicable to financial statements released on or after March 27, 2009. The Company has assessed and included adequate impairment on the carrying value of its mineral properties.

Credit risk and the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities

In January 2009, the CICA approved EIC 173, Credit Risk and the Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities. This guidance clarified that an entity's own credit risk and the credit risk of the counterparty should be taken into account in determining the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities including derivative instruments. This guidance is applicable to fiscal periods ending on or after January 12, 2009. The Company has evaluated this section and determined that there was no impact on its financial statements.

Goodwill and intangible assets

The CICA issued Section 3064, "Goodwill and Intangible Assets", which will replace Section 3062, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" and Section 3450 "Research and development costs". The standard provides guidance on the recognition of intangible assets in accordance with the definition of an asset and the criteria for asset recognition as well as clarifying the concept of matching revenues and expenses, whether these assets are separately acquired or internally developed. This standard applies to fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 2008. For the Company, this section is effective for the year commencing July 1, 2009. The Company has evaluated the new section and determined that there was no impact of its adoption on its financial statements.

Future Changes in Accounting Policies, not yet adopted

Business combinations, consolidated financial statements and non-controlling interest

CICA Handbook Section. 1582 Business Combinations, 1601 – Consolidated Financial Statements, and 1602 – Non-Controlling Interests: these new standards replaced accounting standard 1581 – Business Combinations and 1600 – Consolidated Financial Statements. Section 1582 establishes standards for the accounting of business combinations to match the standards of accounting for business combinations under the International Financial Reporting Standards. This section applies to business combinations with acquisition dates beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Section 1601 and 1602 establish standards for the preparation of consolidated financial statements. These sections apply to interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. The Company has determined that there will be no impact of the adoption of these sections on its financial statements.

International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS")

In 2006, the Canadian Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") published a new strategic plan that will significantly affect financial reporting requirements for Canadian companies. The AcSB strategic plan outlines the convergence of Canadian GAAP with IFRS over an expected five year transitional period. In February 2008 the AcSB announced that 2011 is the changeover date for publicly-listed companies to use IFRS, replacing Canada's own GAAP. The date is for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2011. The transition date of July 1, 2011 will require the restatement for comparative purposes of amounts reported by the Company for the year ended June 30, 2010. While the Company has begun assessing the adoption of IFRS for 2011, the financial reporting impact of the transition to IFRS cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

3. US $2,000,000 (Cdn. $1,870,468) within 60 days of Exchange approval (paid)

The acquisition of Kirkness was accounted for using the purchase method whereby goodwill represents any excess of the purchase price over fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities acquired at the date of acquisition. The results of operations of Kirkness are included in the consolidated financial statements from the effective date of the acquisition of September 6, 2007. Kirkness is considered as integrated foreign operation of the Company.

The acquisition cost of $2,927,900 (US $3,000,000) has been assigned as follows:

Cash	$	667,890
Receivable		431,770
Prepaid expenses		31,092
Land and building		565,000
Drill, pumps and equipment		1,097,113

Accounts payables		(171,592)
Goodwill		557,208
Future income tax		(445,276)
	$	2,927,900

As at June 30, 2008, management evaluated goodwill and the potential impairment in connection with other long-lived assets. Based on its annual evaluation of goodwill, management has determined that the carrying value of goodwill exceeds its fair value as a result of the operating losses realized by Kirkness since acquisition. Accordingly, management has concluded that impairment has occurred and the Company recognized an impairment loss of $557,208 for the year ended June 30, 2008.

The mill, buildings and hoist on the claims are included as part of the Property Option Agreement. The option agreement provides for the following:

- Wayside must make the following cash payments to the Company:
  - $50,000, on the signing of the agreement (received);
  - $450,000 on or before September 15, 2003 (received);
  - $500,000 on or before August 31, 2004 (received);

- Any time prior to the exercise of the option, Wayside would have the exclusive right to extract bulk samples (the "Bulk Sample") from the properties in two stages. The first stage would involve 40,000 tons of sample material or recovery of not more than 15,000 ounces of refined gold, whichever is achieved first, followed by a second stage of bulk sampling program of the second stage 40,000 tons of sampled material or recovery of not more than 15,000 ounces of refined gold, whichever is achieved first.
- Wayside will be responsible at its cost to maintain the Properties and to keep the permits in good standing and be responsible for all environmental and reclamation compliance.
- The Company will be entitled to receive a 5% Net Smelter Return ("NSR") derived from Bulk Samples. Upon exercise of the option by Wayside, the Company's NSR will revert to 3% and Wayside would be responsible to satisfy 10% Net Profit Interest in relation to the property. As at December 31, 2005, Wayside had extracted a bulk sample for the NSR to be $241,342 of which $187,048 was outstanding as at June 30, 2006. During the year ended June 30, 2007, Wayside settled the amount outstanding for 748,182 shares of Wayside.

The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business.

The properties in which the Company currently has an interest are in the exploration stage. As such, the Company is dependent on external financing to fund its activities. ## 15. RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company is engaged primarily in the mineral exploration business and manages related industry risk directly. The Company is potentially at risk for environmental reclamation and fluctuations in commodity-based market prices associated with mineral property interests. Management is of the opinion that the Company addresses environmental risk and compliance in accordance with industry standards and specific project environmental requirements. There is no certainty that all environmental risks and contingencies have been addressed.

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks as follows:

Interest Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to interest rate risk relates to its ability to earn interest income on cash balances at variable rates. The fair value of the Company's cash account affected by changes in short term interest rates will be minimal.

The capital lease on equipment bears a fixed interest rate. Therefore, interest rate risk is nominal.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Company's primary exposure to credit risk is in its cash accounts and accounts receivable. This risk in cash accounts is managed through the use of a major financial institution which has high credit quality as determined by the rating agencies. The Company's receivables are mainly due from the Government of Canada and therefore, the credit risk exposure is low.

Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that the Company will be subject to foreign currency fluctuations in satisfying obligations related to its foreign activities. The Company operates primarily in Canada and the United States.

The following table summarizes the geographical distribution of the Company's financial instruments at June 30, 2010:

	CDN	US	Total
	%	%	%
Accounts receivable and other current assets	89	11	100
Short term obligations and accounts payable	59	41	100

Foreign exchange risk (continued)

The Company's financial results are reported in Canadian dollars while it conducts its business in both Canadian and United States dollars. The Company's drilling activities were carried out by its wholly owned subsidiary located in the United States. The assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses that are denominated in foreign currencies will be affected by changes in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar and the United States dollar. The Company does not currently use derivative financial instruments to mitigate this risk.

For the year ended June 30, 2010, a foreign exchange loss of $238,444 (2009: $224,278) was recognized.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company requires funds to finance its business development activities. In addition, the Company, from time to time, needs to raise equity financing to carry out its exploration programs. There is no assurance that financing will be available or, if available, that such financings will be on reasonable terms.
